Safety Precautions when working on EFI engines
Avoid fuel spraying onto hot engine parts
Disconnect fuel pump before carrying out a compression test
Depressurise the fuel line before disconnecting any fuel line component
Do not run an engine that is misfiring or running rich – can ignite catalytic converter
Always turn off ignition before disconnecting any wires